Wonderful Bowling.

Chicago has a wonderful bowier in Louis Ulrich. Anyone who has bowled knows how hard it is to go through the 10 per cent discount.

one game without an open frame. Ul-rich has sone sixty frames without a break. This fest was accomplished a few days ago, when Urich's more for six games showed the following results: 302, 303, 118, 302, 255 and 256, an average of 2124-6 for six consecutive games. It is not in the average that the score is exceptional, but the fact that Ulrich went through without an "open" frame went through without an "open" frame went through without an "open" fram-makes his playing remarkable.

* Amateur 4 Photography.

As the holiday season approaches it is doubtless the desire of many to include a camera among their presents, or to expend what money may come in the heel of the Christmas stocking for a camera, says the Philadelphia Record. To that class of persons the following advice, if heeded, may save a great amount of patience, expense and valuable time.

In purchasing a camera do not waste money on so-called cheap instruments. They are more expensive in the end for as one gets a more intimate knowledge of this class of work he will grow disgusted with the poor results from a cheap lens and from a camera whose woodwork warps and cracks. you are getting, get good materials.

you are getting, get good materials.

The development of the ordinary velox has been too rapid for the amateur, and has often resulted in considerable trouble. If the developer is diluted the blacks assume a greenish appearance. But some time ago a Mr. West, of Point Elisabeth, South Africa, wrote to "Photographic Life" that he was able to slacken the development of carbon velox by adding sugar to the developer, without losing the rich tones of the black in the image. After long and careful experiment it has been found that sugar is a very valuable agent for this purpose. The developer restrained with the sugar not only gives just as good blacks as if a quicker developer were used, but the developing power of the solution, namely the amount of prints which can be developed with a given amount of developer, remains the same. The action of the sugar seems to be entirely a physical one by retarding the penetration of the developing agent into the sensitive film.

Large prints, especially those on thin

Large prints, especially those on thin paper, are difficult to mount. Here is a tip: Paste the edge of the print all the way round with starch or any commercial mountant; lay this on the mount and then with a soft piece of sponge dampen the film side. Not much water is needed; the print should only be just damp. Cover the whole with a piece of white oil cloth or such like substance, pass a squeegee over it and leave to dry. Result, a print mounted without a crease or wrinkle.

Fiash-light powders are made to burn with a rapid, intense flame by a new discharge apparatus which has a small lamp burning with a round flame, the powder being placed in a bulb and thrown vertically past the flame to ig-nite as it secends.

Print from the negative onto ordinary ferro-prussiate or blue paper, and after washing well in water as usual, float the print on a bath of silver nitrate five grains, water one ounce. In this the image will nearly disappear. Wash well again and developing solution, then fix in the hydrochloric bath, one minim per ounce of water, and finally immerse in ammonia (1850) one minim, water two ounces. A pleasing tone like platinotype will result.

VICTIMS OF THE MAINE.

Preparations for Their Disinterment and Removal.

HAVANA, Dec. 17. - The United States battleship Texas, Captain Sigsbee commanding, has arrived here, and Captain Greene, comman2ant of the na-val station, has conferred with Captain Signbee with regard to the removal from Colon cemetery of the victims of the Maine disaster. The present intention is to remove the remains with as little ceremony as possible.

The work of disinterment will begin to-morrow. Each coffin will be en-closed in a metal casket, and will be closed in a metal casket, and will be surrounded by a dsinfecting compound. The caskets will be removed during the night to the naval wharf, where they will be under naval guard until all is ready for removal to the battleship, which, it is expected, will take place Wednesday night or Thursday at day-break. The Texas will then leave at once.

Father Chadwick will identify the coffine as they are taken from the ground, having a chart showing the exact location of each.

EMPEROR WILLIAM

Has Withdrawn Military Attaches From Paris.

REBLIN, Dec. 15.-Emperor William's ntention to withdraw Major Baron Von Sueskind, German military attache at Paris, as cabled to the Associated Press some time ago, has just been carried out. The event is considered of prime importance. His majesty had become thoroughly disgusted with the attacks and insinuations of the Paris press regarding the activity of the German milttary attaches, and with numerous pri-vate and official reports which had reached him on the subject, bearing out partially, at least, the newspaper charges. His keen sense of honor was aroused, especially as he considers that German officers, who are popularly regarded by their countrymen as above reproach in military matters, ought not to be expected to furnish to the home government information inconsistent with a nice sense of honor. This view, the emperor wants practically borne out.

Spain Won't Sell African Possessions. MADRID, Dec. 17.—Senor Silveia, the premier, replying to a question on the subject in the chamber of deputies, yesterday, said the report of an alliance be terday, said the report of an asimance between Spain and Russia, based upon the cession of Ceuta, the Spanish scaport town in Morocco, opposite Gibraltar, was without foundation. "Neither now nor in the future." he declared, "will Spain, on any account, cede her African possessions."

BELLATRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County.

Rev. H. S. Coffey took for the text of his morning sermon in the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning, "The Parable of the Trees," suggested to him as he announced by the following words of the mayor of Wheel-ing to the ministers of the city:

'No law, however wise and just, can be enforced unless it has the support of a healthy public sentiment in favor of its enforcement. To make such sentiment is your province, not ours. . In this city public sentiment is content with a judicious regulation of the evils with a judicious regulation of the evils complained of. . We ask of you that you bring to our aid the good you can do in the pulpit. The existing conditions . . have been fostered and built up because the very persons who should have taken an interest in municipal affairs neglected their duty."

Rev. Mr. Coffey is a practical sort of a man, who does not believe in regulating the evils, but in stamping them out. A law may not be in accord with public sentiment to-day and to-morrow it may be, and no executive officer is censured for executing the law as he finds it. There are those opposed to capital punishment, but they find fault with the law providing it, not with those executing it.

About Christmas. "Daughter of the Elm"

"A Tale of the Virginia

Border Before the War."

By Granville Davisson Hall.

The scene is laid in the upper Monongahela valley; the time is just prior to and coming down to the opening of the war. A stirring narration of lawlessness and of detective work by a Pittaburgh bureau, through which runs a pleasing love story, which ends happily, as all such stories should. Some real people and events figure in the book, which recall forgotten tragedies.

Announcement will be made when the book is ready.
